HALIFAX, July 10.—The wireless station at Chubuto Head reported at 1:30 this afternoon that the British dirigible was 215 miles south of Halifax and going sixty knots an hour.

NEW YORK, July 10.—A radio message received here at 2 p. m. from the R-34 said she was making good time and had covered 630 miles in 12 hours. The message did not give her position.

By W. R. HARGRAVES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

MINEOLA, L. I., July 10.—The British dirigible R-34, which left on her return voyage to England at midnight was about 500 miles out at 7:10 this morning, New York time.

A message from the airship received at the naval radio station here at that hour gave her position as 40.15 north latitude and 65.50 west longitude. That would locate her at a point about 350 miles southwest of Sidney, N. S., and 500 directly east of Mineola.

Shortly after the R-34's getaway she reported a speed of 55 miles an hour. Her location at 11:10 a. m., Greenwich time (7:10 a. m., New York time), indicated her speed had been increased to about 60 miles an hour.

The decision to start last night, instead of waiting until 4 o'clock this morning—as announced yesterday afternoon—was reached by Major G. H. Scott, commander, at 10:15 p. m. It was occasioned by receipt of an official weather bureau bulletin urging haste because of the approach of a storm. By 11 o'clock the officers and crew had donned their flying clothes of sheepskin and everything was in readiness.

Sack of Mail Aboard

A 25-pound sack of mail was placed aboard. Lieutenant J. J. Quinn, in charge of the departure, gave the signal to the men clinging to the guy ropes to swing her around to head into the wind. The big airship was slowly turned until she pointed directly toward New York City. At 11:40 "all clear" was signalled and the hydrogen gas which had been flowing into the balloons through a ten-inch hose was cut off. At 11:55 bells tinkled throughout the length of the craft.

The R-34's last tie to American soil was severed and she slowly rose to a height of about 25 feet, hesitated, then rose again to fully 800 feet. The engines were started and she moved majestically toward Manhattan.

When the airship passed over Brooklyn at a height of about 2000 feet she was picked out of the darkness by a number of searchlights from the Sperry building. An instant later the lights from the Brooklyn navy

County Harbor Bonds Bring $11,887 Premium; 11 Firms Bid for Half-Million Issue

The $500,000 Orange county bonds for the improvement, development, and protection of Newport Harbor, approved by the voters on June 10, were sold by the board of supervisors today at par, accrued interest, and a premium of $11,887. The buyer is McDonnell and Company of San Francisco, which offered the highest cash premium of any of the eleven bidders.

Early this afternoon the buyer's attorney was furnished with a transcript of the bond proceedings. As soon as these are approved, the money will be paid for the bonds, and the Harbor Commission will be ready to proceed at once with the harbor work. The first job to be gotten under way is diversion of the Santa Ana river from the bay before it can dump more silt into the harbor.

Orange county bonds offer the best security obtainable, and local issues always bring good premiums. That these county harbor bonds were looked upon with favor by bond buyers was shown by the fact that eleven bids for the issue were received. The bids were opened at 11 o'clock this morning, the premiums offered by the different bidders being as follows:

Cyrus Peterson & Co., San Francisco, $8,033.
Torrance-Marshall Co., Los Angeles, $6,051.
E. H. Rollin & Sons, Los Angeles, $4,200.
E. H. Rollins & Sons, Los Angeles, $7,900.
Harris Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago, and Union Trust Co., San Francisco, $9,000.
Wm. R. Staats Co., Los Angeles, $10,418.
First National Bank, Santa Ana, $5,250.
R. H. Moulton & Co., Los Angeles, $10,300.
Citizens' National Bank of Los Angeles and Schwabacher & Co., $5,000.
Perrin, Drake, and Riley, Aronson & Co., and Carston & Earley, $5,653.
McDonnell & Co., San Francisco, $11,887.

Accompanying the bid of the First National Bank of Santa Ana was a statement that the bank would sell the county Victory bonds for any part of the amount at par and interest, and

ECONOMIC COUNCIL EXPECTED TO LIFT GERMAN BLOCKADE

PARIS, July 10.—Herr von Lersner of the German peace delegation, officially notified Colonel Henry, French liaison officer, at 11 a. m. today, that Germany had ratified the treaty yesterday.

The superior economic council, meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon, was expected to take action for immediate lifting of the blockade.

Von Lersner also announced that the German reparations commission, numbering eighteen, would arrive this evening and begin its sessions in Versailles tomorrow.

BERLIN, July 9.—President Ebert signed the peace treaty at 10 o'clock tonight and immediately sent the document to Versailles by courier, according to the Berlin Vorwaerts.

The national assembly at Weimar today passed a resolution ratifying the peace treaty, but not until every speaker had protested against its terms. The vote on the resolution was 209 to 115.

"We are about to enter upon a forty years' march across a desert," said Hermann Mueller, foreign minister, addressing the assembly. "I cannot find any other term for the path of suffering which the fulfillment of the treaty prescribes."

"We have hastened ratification in the hope of raising the blockade. Unless the word of peace loses all its meaning, the return of prisoners must follow soon. Unanimous protest against the oppression embodied in the treaty is maintained today and always."

Dr. Traub of the national party declared amid applause that "the wound of this peace will never heal; it shall not heal."

MAN WITH LETTER TO PRESIDENT ARRESTED

WASHINGTON, July 10.—A man giving the name of James L. Ezekel, of Landover, Maryland, was arrested at the capitol shortly before President Wilson arrived today. The man had a letter addressed to "Woodrow Wilson, President, capitol building," which he said he wanted to deliver to the President in person.

MOTHER TO VISIT NEW IN CELL TODAY

Mrs. Lulu Burger Will Tell

"SHE'S A BRICK," SAYS
SWEETHEART SLAYER

Attorney Investigates the Theory That Girl May Have Killed Self

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Mrs. Lulu Burger planned today to visit her son, Harry S. New, who claims his father is United States Senator Harry S. New of Indiana, and to pledge him everything in his fight to escape punishment on the charge of murdering his sweetheart, pretty Frieda Lesser.

"Everything I have and can get, my every thought and effort and prayers are for my boy in his trouble," declared Mrs. Burger, who arrived at her Glendale home from Indianapolis yesterday.

"Mother told me to tell you to cheer up," was the message New's sister, Edna Clancy, carried to New in his cell along with the word that his mother could not visit him until later today. "She said to tell you she is here to help you to the last dollar and last ounce of strength she has."

"She's a brick," responded New, who today showed a revival of his spirits and a real interest in life.

The arrival of Mrs. Burger came simultaneously with the word that attorneys for New are investigating the possibility of a suicide theory—of a defense that Frieda Lesser killed herself and that New, so stunned by what happened, really did not know how she met her death and merely presumed he had killed her. This theory is being based on the position of the body, the alleged fact that the shot was fired from a distance of a few inches and indications that no struggle had occurred.

Observers of the case were convinced that New, now that he is regaining his poise and his mother has arrived, will fight stubbornly for his liberty.

Cut Living Cost Or Quit, British Government Told

LONDON, July 10.—The government is called upon to make a definite pledge to reduce the cost of living or to resign, in a resolution passed yesterday by the national executive committee of the labor party.

The resolution declared the government had failed to prevent "merciless exploitation" of the public by profiteers, "who are charged with taking ruthless advantage of the shortage of supplies and transports."

Sane Man Freed After 14 Years Held In Asylum

JAMES BELDEN
New York Commission Finds
James Belden Kept In Place Unjustly

AUBURN, N. Y., July 10.—After having been held unjustly for more than 14 years in an insane asylum, James Belden has been declared sane by a commission and given his freedom.

Belden was sent up for two and one-half years for larceny in 1902 and after having been declared insane he was placed with insane criminals in the Dannemora State Hospital. He tried numerous times to get his case reopened but was not successful until some months ago when he got the matter before Governor Smith.

The governor appointed a commission to investigate the story and the body found that Belden was not insane and had been held in the asylum unjustly.

BULLETINS

MOUNT CLEMENS, July 10.—That Japan has been threatening war with the United States for some time and was an unfaithful ally and sought separate peace with Germany, was the statement made by Col. R. R. McCormick, one of the editors of the Chicago Tribune during cross examination in the Henry Ford-Chicago Tribune libel suit today.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—San Francisco brewers won their first fight in the battle against prohibition today when in the federal district court railroad administration officials admitted that certain S. P. officials were wrong when they refused to accept two and three-fourths per cent beer for shipment. The case grew out of an attempt to ship beer to Los Angeles. The court held the admission of error was sufficient and an injunction was not issued.

U. S. PARTY TO PACTS OF TURKEY, BULGARIA

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The United States will be a party to the execution of peace treaties with Turkey and Bulgaria, although the country was not at war with these nations, it was learned today.

The United States will be concerned because the league of nations covenant will go into each treaty, as the United States is a party to the league, it was stated on high authority.

TREATY IS WORTHLESS WITHOUT LEAGUE, SAYS PRESIDENT IN SPEECH

Old Entanglements Stood In Way of Peace, Declared
Wilson, But Europe Welcomed American Assistance
In Forming Pact As It Did Our Armies In the War;
Borah Introduces Resolution Asking Shanting Letters.

By L. C. MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The United States has been offered the moral leadership of the world and dare not reject it without "breaking the world's heart," President Wilson declared today to the senate in presenting for ratification the treaty of peace.

"Shall we hesitate to accept this great duty?" the president asked.

"Dare we reject it and break the heart of the world? The only question is whether we can refuse the moral leadership that is offered us; whether we shall accept or reject the confidence of the world."

Rejection of the league of nations, Wilson said, would be a rejection of the world's confidence. More than that, he declared that with the league of nations out the treaty becomes but a scrap of paper.

The president began his speech by outlining how American troops, to whom he paid warm tribute as "men terrible in battle but gentle and helpful out of it," turned the tide of the war.

Coming to the making of peace, Wilson reviewed in detail the many complex questions presented and the difficulties growing out of a disposition in some quarters to cling to the old order.

Old Entanglements in way of Peace.

"Old entanglements," he said, "stood in the way of peace. It was not easy," he added, "to graft the new order of ideas on the old and some of the fruits of the grafting may, I fear, for a time be bitter."

But on the whole, the president declared, Europe welcomed American participation in the peace-making as eagerly as it welcomed our armies and accomplished American principles of peace.

He asserted emphatically that the treaty is thoroughly consistent with the principles he laid down in the fourteen points and at the same time meets the practical needs of the situation.

"We were welcomed as disinterested friends," said the President. "It was recognized that our material aid would be indispensable in the days to come when industry and credit must be brought back to their normal opinion, and it was taken for granted, I am proud to say, that we would play the helpful friend."

In view of all this the president said the question is put squarely up to the United States whether it will try to resume its old policy of isolation or will continue through the League of Nations the task of maintaining "the new order set up in the world—the world of civilized men."

The United States, the president said, has reached its majority as a world power. He hinted, it was believed, the acceptance of a mandatory by the United States, when he said "weak peoples everywhere stand ready to give us any authority among them that will assure them a friendly oversight and direction."

Will Present Pledge To France.

The president announced that later he will present the treaty under which American aid is pledged to France against unprovoked German aggression. His chief appeal for the League of Nations was made when he said:

"It was universally recognized that all peoples of the world demanded of the conference that it should create such a continuing concert of free nations that would make war of aggression and spoliation, such as this that has just ended, forever impossible."

"A cry has gone out from every home in every stricken land in which sons, brothers and fathers have gone forth to the great sacrifice that such a sacrifice should never again be exacted."

"It was manifested why it had been exacted. It had been exacted because one nation desired domination and that other nations had no means of defense except armaments and alliances."

"War had lain at the heart of every arrangement of Europe—of every arrangement of the world that had preceded the war."

"Restive people had been told that fleets and armies that they toiled to sustain, meant peace; and now they know that they had been lied to; that fleets and armies had been maintained to promote national ambitions and meant war. They know that no old policy meant anything else but force. Force—always force."

Would Destroy Old Order of Politics.

"And now they know that it was intolerable. Every true heart in the world, every enlightened judgment demanded that at whatever cost of independent action, every government that took thought for its people or for justice, order and freedom should lend itself to a new purpose and utterly destroy the old order of international politics."

Immediately after President Wilson left the Senate chamber, Senator H. Borah of Idaho introduced a resolution asking the president to send to the Senate "if not incompatible with public interests" letters and protests from members of the peace commission relative to Shantung.

The resolution asked particularly for a letter of protest alleged to have been written to the president by General Bliss on behalf of himself, Secretary Lansing and Henry White of the peace commission.

The president is also asked to submit any memorandum available which would indicate that Japan attempted to coerce Chinese delegates in the Shantung matter.

In appearing before the senate today, the President used another tradition. Since the nation began, all treaty discussions in the senate have been cloaked in secrecy. But today's ceremony proceeded in the open, as President Wilson in his fourteen points declared treaty making must henceforth always proceed.

Regarded as the first gun in a most vigorous campaign for unequivocal acceptance of the peace settlement just as it is, today's address received the most attentive consideration of supporters and opponents of the Wilsonian peace program.

Though the speech was virtually completed before the George Washington docked, Wilson spent most of yesterday in revising and amending it. Just how he changed it, or for what reason was not known. It was understood, however, that the changes were principally in structure and that the main idea of the address as he outlined it on shipboard remained the same.

President Wilson's appearance in the senate was set for 12:15.

Shortly after 12 the special committee of five senators named for the purpose went to the President's room a few feet from the senate chamber and awaited there the arrival of the presidential party. This committee was composed of the three senior Republicans and the two senior Democrats on the foreign relations committee of the Lodge, acknowledged leader of the "conservative" opposition to the League of Nations. Hitchcock, administration spokesman on the league; McCumber, chief Republican supporter of it; Williams, an enthusiastic supporter of Wilson, and Borah, his most outspoken and "bitter end" opponent. Escorted by the committee, the President will enter the senate by the door on the Democratic side.

Leaders said today they favor a recess until Monday to give plenty of time for study of the treaty which was presented. The foreign relations committee probably will meet Monday to formulate plans for work on the two treaties.

The text of President Wilson's speech in part follows:

"Gentlemen of the Senate:

"The treaty of peace with Germany was signed at Versailles on the 28th of June. I avail myself of the earliest opportunity to lay the treaty before you for ratification and to inform you with regard to the work of the conference by which that treaty was formulated.

"The treaty constitutes nothing less than a world settlement. It would not be possible for me either to summarize or to construe its manifold provisions in an address which must of necessity be something less than a treaty. My service and all the information I possess will be at your disposal and at the disposal of your committee on foreign relations at any time, either informally or in session, as you may prefer.

"And I hope that you will not hesitate to make use of them. I shall at this time, prior to your own study of the document, attempt only a general characterization of its scope and purpose.

"In one sense, no doubt, there is no other capacity."

Treaty Scrap of Paper Without Nations League

WASHINGTON, July 10.—President Wilson told the senate that: Treaty would be scrap of paper without the league of nations. People demanded league and would brook no denial. America's material aid to Europe be indispensable in days to come. If league of nations was rejected the world's heart would be broken. America is friend of all nations. America has just reached her majority as a world power. America's isolation ended twenty years ago. Moral leadership of the world is offered America. The question is whether we accept or reject it. America shall in truth show the way to the world. The treaty squares with the fourteen points as well as with the practical needs of the situation.

It is not exactly the sort of treaty the United States would have written.

We have sought no special reparation for ourselves, but only the restoration of right and the assurance of liberty everywhere. "America's fighting made victory certain." "A league of free nations is a practical necessity."

Crowd Braves Rain Storm To See President Wilson

BY FAYMOND CLAPPER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 10.—It was literally an arena, roped off and pressed on every side by eager throngs, that President Wilson was to enter today to begin his dramatic fight for the League of Nations.

Spectators began arriving at the capitol hours before President Wilson was scheduled to appear.

Denied admission to the Senate chamber, they lined the outer entrance of the north wing of the capitol, braving a rain storm which raged in brief spells, to see the President pass from his automobile into the building.

Promptly at 12 noon Vice President Marshall's gavel brought the loud buzz of convention to a dead silence.

The Rev. Forrest J. Prettyman, Senate chaplain, prayed for strength to bear the ever increasing burdens.

Immediately afterward the reading of the journal was begun and routine business was transacted for ten minutes.

need that I should report to you what was attempted and done at Paris. You have been daily cognizant of what was going on there—of the problems with which the peace conference had to deal and of the difficulty of laying down straight lines of settlement anywhere on a field on which the old lines of international relationship and the new alike, followed so intricate a pattern and were for the most part cut so deep by historical circumstances, which dominated action even where it would have been best to ignore or reverse them.

"The cross currents of politics and of interest must have been evident to you. It would be presuming in me to attempt to explain the questions which arose or the many diverse elements that entered into them. I shall attempt something less ambitious than that and more clearly suggested by my duty to report to the Congress.

"The part it seemed necessary for my colleagues and me to play as representatives of the government of the United States. That part was dictated by the role America had played in the war and by the expectations that had been created in the minds of the peoples with whom we had associated ourselves in that great struggle.

"The United States entered the war upon a different footing from every other nation except our associates on this side of the sea. We entered it not because our material interests were directly threatened or because any special treaty obligations to which we were parties had been violated, but only because we saw the supremacy and even the validity of right everywhere put in jeopardy and free government likely to be everywhere imperiled by the intolerable aggression of a power which respected neither right nor obligation and whose very system of government flouted the rights of the citizen as against the autocratic authority of his governors.

"And in the settlements of the peace we have sought no special reparation for ourselves, but only the restoration of right and the assurance of liberty everywhere that the effects of the settlement were to be felt. We entered the war as the disinterested champions of right and we interested ourselves in the terms of peace to no other capacity."

"In one sense, no doubt, there is no other capacity."

MAN WITH NOTE ENEMY BLOCKADE TO PRESIDENT IS LIFTED BY ARRESTED HUN ACTION

Stranger Drops Package at Wilson's Feet and Is Quickly Seized

WASHINGTON, July 10.—A man giving the name of James L. Ezekiel of Landover, Md., was arrested at the capitol shortly before President Wilson arrived today. The man had a letter addressed to "Woodrow Wilson," President, Capitol Building, which he said he wanted to deliver to the President in person.

As President Wilson was leaving the capitol after his address, a stranger standing near the door suddenly dropped a small package wrapped in brown paper which rolled on the floor within a few feet of the President.

The President stepped back slightly and secret service men seized the parcel and threw it through the door while others grabbed the man who dropped it.

On being questioned he declared the package contained nothing but papers and said he had dropped it purely by accident.

COUNTY HARBOR BONDS WERE SOLD TODAY

First National Offers Good Proposition, Which Cannot Legally Be Accepted

buy them back at par and interest as the county needs the money. This would give the county 4 1/2 per cent interest on all unused money in the harbor fund, which would effect an estimated saving of $20,000 to the county during the period that the bond money is being spent.

A. J. Crookshank, president of the bank, addressed the board briefly, holding that in the long run his bid was the highest of all through the fact that he would guarantee the county 4 1/2 per cent on all the harbor money until it is used, which would amount, he believes, to more than $20,000, in addition to the cash premium of $5,250. He pointed out that the First National of Santa Ana would sell the Victory bonds at par to the county and would buy them back at par, while if they accepted some other bid and invested the money until used in government bonds, the county would have to buy at the market price and sell at the market price, which might entail a loss between the cost and selling price.

Certain Conditions Involved

District Attorney L. A. West, upon whose opinion the board must rely in matters of this kind, said he would like to see the bonds remain in Orange county and had no doubt the First National's estimate of the saving to the county through acceptance of its bid was correct, but West held that there are certain conditions involved which the supervisors had no power to say at this time would be fulfilled, and for that reason he advised that the First National's bid could not be accepted.

In order to expedite the proceedings so that the money may be paid in and the Harbor Commission be ready to proceed with the development work at the earliest possible moment, West had prepared a transcript of the bond proceedings, and promised the successful bidder's attorney that within an hour after the bid was accepted the transcript would be ready to be certified to, and would then be presented for the attorney's examination. The bond purchaser has thirty days within which to have the legality of the proceedings investigated and approved by his attorney, when the bonds will be paid for.

The $500,000 issue is in denominations of $1,000, twenty bonds being payable each year for twenty-five years, and they bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum. The bonds will be dated September 1, 1919.

WILSON WILL KEEP DRY LAW IN EFFECT

WASHINGTON, July 10.—President Wilson, it was learned today, has no immediate intention of declaring demoralization complete and rescinding war time prohibition. He is believed to hold that the rate at which the various nations ratify the peace treaty has a bearing on the question and also that maintenance of military forces for enforcement of the treaty must be taken into consideration.

CAN'T LEARN MOTIVE FOR BRIDE'S MURDER

UKIAH, Cal., July 10.—Utterly unable to find a motive for the murder of Mrs. Fred Knaesche, who returned from her honeymoon Monday, authorities are endeavoring to piece out a theory from the bloodstains through the home, two miles from here.

The dying struggles of the woman are plainly traced in her own blood. A pool starts at an outside door in the living room. It leads to a telephone where the woman apparently sought help, and from there through a hallway to her bed on a sleeping porch. Here her husband, returning from work, found the body.

Mrs. Knaesche's head was torn open from a shotgun charge. A discharged shotgun and a heavy soldering iron were found beside the bed. Powder burns on the bed indicate the woman was attracted outside, possibly with the soldering iron, and killed on the sleeping porch.

"DIP IT UP"

Every year the individual effort of people to get on in life, everywhere from Bangor to San Diego, adds to the aggregate wealth of the nation, and increases the number of those who are able to live upon their incomes. Many of them desire to live in a more genial climate than can be found in the East. They will continue to come to Southern California, as they have been coming for years, to seek homes and fortune. They bring with them money to spend and money to invest in land, in buildings, and in manufacturing and commercial enterprises.

Living is comparatively cheap here. One can buy in the stores and shops of Santa Ana as much for a dollar as can be bought for the same amount anywhere in the United States. There can be purchased a Paris gown or a woolen shirt, a watch or a penknife, as cheaply as in a Kansas or Iowa town of the same size, or in Boston or New York, for that matter, for here rent is less, cost of living is not so high and clerk hire is no more, and these items balance the cost of freight.

Every comfort and luxury of life can be obtained here, including climate, and climate is as salable as wheat, only it cannot be bottled or boxed for transportation. It must, like a glass of soda water, be consumed on the spot. It's purchasers have been coming here for years by every train, and they will continue to come until every available acre of land within a radius of many miles of our city center will be occupied. And there will be added to the usual stream of immigrants a large number of returned soldiers and of men and women whom the close of the war will release from their present employment.

An increase in the population of a city inevitably brings with it an increase in real estate values. When Los Angeles was a city of 10,000 people, lot which then sold for ten dollars a front foot now bring a thousand dollars a front foot. The same may be said of Chicago, of Kansas City, of Denver, and other western cities. We may confidently expect a similar proportional advance in this city.

There is extant a tale of a ship sailing in the Caribbean Sea that was driven southward by a furious gale. A great wave washed overboard her water casks and carried away her nautical instruments. She drifted helplessly for days on an unknown sea, and her officers and crew were consumed with thirst. In their extremity the captain steered toward an approaching vessel and cried, "Ship ahoy! We have lost our reckoning and our water casks are washed away. Will you tell us where we are, and give us water?" The strange vessel carried the French colors at her masthead and her captain shook his head and sailed on; a Russian ship and a German ship were hailed in turn and neither responded to the call of "Ship ahoy!" At last a vessel with the Stars and Stripes at her masthead approached. The captain of the distressed ship sprang into the rigging and cried, "Ship ahoy! For God's sake tell us where we are and give us water!" The answer came, as the American ship sailed by, "You are in the Amazon, dip it up."

In this city we are today in the Amazon of opportunity—let us dip it up.

MILK-DRINKING

The milk boom is growing, aided by health workers and the United States Department of Agriculture. The government is doing its educational work by means of lectures, moving pictures, charts and demonstrations. It is carrying the instruction to factory groups, to the crowded sections in big cities, to the rural school, in fact, to people of all ages and classes and nationalities in all parts of the country.

An Illinois factory has recently opened its doors to milk vendors who go through twice a day at 10 and 3:00 o'clock, with sweet milk and butter-milk. A considerable number of men have developed the habit of buying a pint each time and drinking it as a between-meal lunch. The foreman states that the men have gained in efficiency, that they are in better health and more contented and even-tempered since this custom was introduced.

A department store in Connecticut distributes half-pint bottles of milk among its employees twice each day. Straws are furnished with the bottles so that the milk will not be taken too rapidly. The employees pay for the milk, but the price is moderate, no effort being made by the company to make profit on the sales.

In Michigan a special effort is being made to insure every growing child having at the milk it needs. Recently parents of under-nourished children were asked to send three cents a day to the school for a 10 o'clock lunch of milk and a slice of bread and butter. The parents responded well; only five out of a large number of under-nourished youngsters were fed at public expense. All soon showed a marked improvement in health.

It's a fine habit to cultivate, especially in children who need this vitalizing food for their proper nourishment and growth. There will be less tuberculosis abroad in the land when there is more milk-drinking.

HOW DID HE LOOK?

English newspaper men who saw President Wilson at the time when the German delegates first met with the representatives of the Allies at Versailles do not agree as to Mr. Wilson's facial expression. Making due allowance for the fact that no two people ever see the same thing in exactly the same way, and that an individual always interprets the acts of others from his own point of view, there is still an interesting divergence of opinion concerning the President's mien.

According to one correspondent, the President faced the situation with "a little smile, half hidden in passivity." Says another correspondent: "A searching gaze, but suggestive of judicial stolidity." A third declares he "glanced around the room with intense curiosity." Still another describes him thus: "Mr. Wilson, cold and non-committal."

It hadn't occurred to most of us to be curious about the matter at all. But now that the London papers have introduced the momentous subject, one can't help but wonder how the President really looked.

TWO-CENT POSTAGE

The war-rates on first-class mail matter have now been lowered, and letters may be mailed for two cents an ounce, as formerly. Postcards are likewise reduced from two cents to the old one-cent rate.

It may seem a trivial thing. Many people say they care little what the letter rate is—they spend so small a part of their income on postage. But it is no trifle to the government. That extra cent on letters and postcards increased the postoffice revenues $126,000,000 in less than two years. You paid it. Everybody paid it, though some naturally paid more than others. It bore with special weight on business concerns that use the mails freely for correspondence and advertising.

It resulted in some useful improvements and reforms, such as stopping the wasteful old practice of always sending receipts for small payments, even when they are made by checks, which, when endorsed, are good enough receipts for anybody. It also stopped the cluttering of the mails with some useless correspondence. But in the main, it was a tax on useful communication and thus a tax on intelligence and constructive business. So it is well abolished.

The government still needs money, but it thinks it can raise it better in some other way.

A man hopping down from Mars just now to get the latest news would learn:

"That the peace treaty is the most righteous international settlement ever made, and that it is the greatest diplomatic crime ever perpetrated."

"That the League of Nations covenant is an inspired charter of human freedom and a guarantee of lasting peace, and that it is a triumph of peace, and that it is a triumph of peace, and that it is a triumph of peace."

Whereupon he would hop back to his planet very much enlightened.

It Is a Fake

Methodist Press
The "Allied Medical Association of America" is reported in the daily press as having gone on record in favor of 2.75 per cent beer.

Dr. Ignatz Mayer, the president, is especially quoted.

Great publicity has been given this by the liquor interests.

The Allied Medical Association, according to the very best authority in America, is not representative of scientific medicine. Ignatz Mayer, the president, was born in Austria, and he is advertised as "specializing exclusively in the cure of rupture." L. Motety, secretary-treasurer and apparently the chief organizer, was born in Hungary, and has received extensive newspaper publicity in connection with anti-vaccination activities and an alleged cure for cancer.

This bunch would make an Indian medicine man hold his nose.

And yet Mr. Gompers had the effrontery to quote these queer men to the judiciary committee of the senate.

The American Medical Association, with a membership of 80,000 of the leading physicians of the country, has said officially:

"Whereas, we believe that the use of alcohol is detrimental to the human economy, and whereas its use in therapeutics as a tonic or stimulant or for food has no scientific value; therefore

"Be it resolved, that the American Medical Association is opposed to the use of alcohol as a beverage; and

"Be it further resolved, that the use of alcohol as a therapeutic agent should be further discouraged."

Bark Is Worse Than Bite

Now Is the Time to Dig

The resumption of business has begun in this country. It is a thing of the present. It is not something to look forward to; it is here.

The makers of wood and metal patterns are so busy they do not know what to do. Orders have been placed with American firms for the reconstruction of entire French villages and towns. Great Britain wants steel rails, enough to pay double what they are worth. The tide is not on the ebb. It has turned and is on the flow. Better swim than be swept away.

Now is the time to be up and doing. Opportunity is knocking at the door insistently and with an appeal to every red-blooded American.

Everywhere is activity. No man and no woman need lament lack of opportunity. Let us look out upon things with the optimism that the conditions warrant. It is the optimist who is happiest and who has the greatest measure of success in this life, and now is the time for him to score in whatever worthy projects he may be engaged, in whatever business is his. Now is the time for him to "get in and dig."

A brush fire in Indian canyon, between Elsinore and Glen Ivy, sent up a great volume of smoke yesterday evening beyond the Santa Ana ridge. Forest Ranger Stephenson of El Toro, who is chief ranger for the Santa Ana range, left for the fire yesterday afternoon. This morning little smoke was arising, and it is believed the fire is under complete control.

For Good Measure

By the Editor
My hat is off to Linn Shaw. He started something worth while when he urged the building of a good road to Saddleback. And not only started something, but seems to have put it over, for the road is practically assured.

With the Associated Chambers of Commerce endorsing the proposed ten cents special tax levy for roads, two of the supervisors avowedly favorable to the proposition and the others all known to be "for" anything and everything for the good of Orange County, the levy is as good as made.

Think what it will mean for Orange County to have the best and most complete system of boulevards of any county in the state! And that's just what she'll have within a few years if that ten cents special road tax is levied and collected and judiciously expended for a few years in succession.

And the road to Saddleback would assure not only the success of our new hotel, "St. Ann's Inn," but it would inevitably lead to the construction of the proposed "Skyline Drive," and ultimately to the development of one of the most easily accessible and attractive mountain resorts in the state.

And W. L. Deimling, too, started something—something of another sort, to be sure, but no less interesting and important—when he focused attention on the fact that the water level in the Santa Ana valley has been lowered thirty-one feet in the past six years—from six to eight feet within the past twelve months.

Doesn't that make you sit up and take notice?

Of course many people were aware of these conditions, but it is to be doubted that they were generally known or even fully appreciated by the few who knew of them.

The time has certainly arrived when San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange counties must get busy in earnest, on that job of storing the flood waters of the Santa Ana river by check-dams and underground and surface storage reservoirs. If possible to do so, every drop of storm water that flows down the Santa Ana river should be spread on gravel beds and sunk into the underground streams and basins, or impounded in surface reservoirs. None of this precious heaven-sent fount of health and wealth should be permitted to slake the thirst of the Pacific ocean.

Mr. John Bruns, Santa Ana, Calif., writes from My dear Mr. Bruns: I have read with great pleasure the address of your son. It is indeed a fine tribute. Will you convey to him the family's warm appreciation? With best regards, believe me, Very truly yours, THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

When the Grand Army of the Republic was holding its Department convention in Santa Ana, Paul Bruns, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bruns of North Broadway, electrified the convention by delivering one of the finest patriotic addresses ever heard in this city. In the course of the address the young orator paid a glowing and glorious tribute to the Americanism of the late Theodore Roosevelt and the Department Commander was so impressed with its beauty that he secured and sent a copy of the address to Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., whose acknowledgment is given above.

I did not have the pleasure of hearing the speech of Paul Bruns, but I have heard many encomiums of it, and take this method of offering the young man my hearty congratulations.

DON'T FORGET YOUR FAVORITE BOOKS

How incomplete is a vacation without a selected list of good books! Books never change; never grow tired of one; always welcome perusal, and if carefully handled tell just as cheerfully their story over and over again to thousands, without complaint or stint or impatience.

He that loves a book will never want a faithful friend, a cheerful companion, an effective comforter.—Isaac Barrows. Books are the masters who instruct us without whip or rod, without harsh words or anger, asking naught in return. If you seek them, they are not asleep; if you ask counsel of them, they do not refuse it; if you go astray, they do not chide; if you betray ignorance to them, they know not how to laugh in scorn. Truly, of all our masters, books alone are free and freely teach.—Richard de Bury, 1345.

Dinner For Friends.

Mrs. D. F. White was hostess Tuesday noon for several of her old friends and relatives at an informal dinner. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ross and children of Idaho, who are making an extended visit in Alhambra and Mr. Schilling of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. White and Miss Carolyn White were also there to enjoy an afternoon talking over old times and friends.

Mrs. D. F. White, Mrs. E. D. White and two children and Miss Carolyn White leave Sunday for their old home in Montana, where they will visit with friends and relatives, the remainder of the summer.

Birthday Surprise.

In spite of the fact that he has often said "it can't be done," Mrs. A. P. Nelson thoroughly surprised her husband last evening with a dinner party in honor of his birthday.

Covers were laid for Judges Z. B. West, R. Y. Williams and W. H. Thomas, District Attorney L. A. West and Deputy District Attorney W. F. Menton. It was very warm, but in the ardent round table discussions, the heat was forgotten and the men all thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Nelson chose red roses for the living room and center for the table. Mrs. L. A. West assisted her during the evening.

To Study Music.

Miss Carolyn Haughton left today for St. Louis and Chicago, where she will study music, from there she will go to Mississippi, Tennessee and Texas, returning home the first of September.

Relief Corps Tea.

The Relief Corps Tea will be held in G. A. R. Hall, tomorrow, at two o'clock. The receipts from the tea will go towards the annual free dinner which will be served to the G. A. R. veterans at the Huntington Beach encampment. A fine program has been arranged and delicious ice cream and home made cake will be served. A good attendance is desired.

Dinner for Soldier Son.

A very charming dinner party was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hardy, in honor of their son, Aschel Hardy, who has just returned from overseas.

During his absence of nearly two years, the young soldier had the opportunity of seeing parts of England, France, Italy, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany.

Wedded in Fresno. Word has just been received of the wedding of Mrs. Mary E. Shaw and George W. Hoff, formerly of Santa Ana.

They both have a large circle of friends whose best wishes and congratulations will follow them to their new home at 201 East Eighth street, Hartford, where they will reside for the present.

Week End Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Van Dranken of San Francisco were guests over the week end of Miss Mildred Murphy. Mrs. Van Dranken is attending the Marion Morgan school of dancing in Los Angeles.

Delegate to St. Louis

The general convention of business and professional women's clubs to be held in St. Louis, July 14 to 18, inclusive, is to have three representatives from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Jane Humphreys, president of the Business Women's Association and who has charge of the L. B. Dockweiler offices in Los Angeles, is to be one of the delegates.

Miss Humphreys, formerly for many years a resident of this city, has many friends here. She is an intimate friend of Dr. J. P. Boyd and Miss Rosa Boyd and is often a visitor at their home. She heads an organization of women workers who stood in the front rank of Red Cross chapters in wartime and is continuing as a mutual aid and philanthropic organization.

The provisional federation of business and professional women's clubs, which sprang into being at the instance of the government in war time, already has divided the country into five main divisions, most of the states in each of these divisions having held conventions with the exception of California and the Pacific coast group. From this division, which embraces California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Nevada, will go what is regarded, however, as one of the strongest delegations despite this failure to unite formally. From this group is expected some of the most practical and clear-cut business policies to be presented at the convention in St. Louis.

The purposes of the big meeting are to unite organizations of business and professional women in order to come to a better understanding of the conditions and needs of women in different parts of the country; to gather and distribute information relative to vocational opportunities for women and to create a greater solidarity among women throughout the country, who are engaged in gainful occupations or the professions.

The psychology of the assembly at St. Louis, representing as it does so many different commercial interests among women and forces not accustomed to coalescence will be most interesting. Each section of the country presents its type of business woman, too, which adds a human as well as a business interest to the assembly.

Talked of Philippines.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church held its July meeting yesterday afternoon at the church. During the first half hour, Mrs. Victor Montgomery reviewed the last chapter in the mission study book, "The Gospel for a Working World," after which the ladies entered upon a general discussion of the whole book.

The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. W. M. Belding, who brought a message of help from her talk upon "Humility."

After a short business meeting, Mrs. Harry Lewis gave an excellent report of the Presbyterial.

Mrs. A. M. McDermott had charge of the program for the afternoon, the topics of which were the Philippines, and Cuba and Porto Rico.

Mrs. Herbert Rankin spoke upon the way America has changed the people of the Philippine Islands. Mrs. W. W. Anderson told about the Silliman Institute, and also showed and explained some interesting curios, the property of Miss Edna Beatty, from these Islands. An interesting fact, showing the loyalty of the inhabitants, was that they were asked for $2,500,000 for the liberty loan, and oversubscribed it by $1,000,000.

Mrs. McDermott spoke interestingly on Porto Rico, and Mrs. W. E. Ward told of the temperance in Cuba.

Mrs. R. J. Blee spoke upon the discovery of a new cure for leprosy.

The society voted to send some needed articles to Miss Estelle Daniels, a missionary in Chile, who was formerly a member of this church, and one of the teachers in the city schools here.

W. C. T. U. Resolutions.

The regular quarterly W. C. T. U. executive meeting was held yesterday in the Methodist church at Huntington Beach. The meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock by the president, Mrs. L. C. Yeoman, and Mrs. Clark of Huntington Beach led the devotional service. The superintendents present gave excellent talks and plans for the year's work.

Some interesting reports were given by the local president.

Mrs. Helen Stoddard of San Diego, who is one of the directors for explaining the plan for the national million dollar drive and campaign for a million new members, was present. The plan is for Southern California to raise for the national W. C. T. U. $16,000 and at the same time the W. C. T. U. of Southern California will try to raise $16,000 to further the work in this part of the state. Each member will be given two cards each quarter to fill with ten dimes, so that each member will pay $8 to this drive, one half to be for the state work. Each member may fill her dime cards any way she chooses. By asking friends to help who are interested in this work and who might not be a member, this money raised for the work in Southern California will help to keep up the home for girls, and the home for women and children, Home Center in San Diego, and all organization work.

Orange county was first to go over the top in the other drive for war funds. The members are asked to keep this in mind during this year and be able to go over the top when the year is up.

The resolution committee composed of Mrs. J. N. Anderson and Mrs. L. H. Mills, submitted the following resolutions:

Again has life's golden cord been loosed, and a golden bowl been broken and whereas in the going away into the life eternal of our beloved comrad, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, the W. C. T. U. has lost one of the most consecrated and efficient members.

Therefore, resolved that we as a county mourn the loss of her earthly greatness in every avenue of human helpfulness. She was a specialist in the department of Franchise, having been our national superintendent for many years, and all states where woman's suffrage obtains can claim her as a pioneer justly entitled to the award from all womanhood. "She hath done what she could." Her life's work like that of Frances Willard will be an inspiration to those now living and will reach into the unlimited future.

Whereas, the law in reference to community property passed by our last legislature is a splendid forward step in the progress of women and in so far as it now reaches is satisfactory to our citizenship.

Resolved that the Orange county W. C. T. U. in session assembled wish to thank our lawmakers for giving us this law and hope that nothing inimical to its beneficial effect may occur.

Resolved, that we protest against the lack of consideration shown by the men who smoke in the public automobile stages which are as often occupied by women and children as by men.

Resolved, that we ask the Pacific Electric to set aside a space in the general waiting room in Los Angeles where women and children may be free from the unpleasantness of tobacco smoke when they are compelled to wait there.

Resolved, that we voice our appreciation of the kindness of our Huntington Beach sisters as expressed—the serving of tea and coffee on beautifully appointed tables, for our lunch and thank the official board for the use of the church.

Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Tarver were hosts at a family dinner last evening at their residence on East First street.

The dinner was for Mr. Tarver's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tarver, who have been visiting here for some time. They leave Saturday for their home in Dallas, Texas, by way of San Francisco and the Yellowstone Park.

Miss Opp Hostess

Miss Carolyn Opp was hostess to her Sunday school class of the Zion Evangelical Church last evening at her home on Twentieth street.

Nineteen were present to enjoy a jolly evening after the transaction of business details.

Picnic at Park

The Althean picnic held at Orange County Park last evening was a great success. Three machines carried the twenty girls up there, where they had the usual good times "shooting the chutes," swinging, boating and just hiking around. "Hot dogs" and hamburger sandwiches were just two of the many good things the girls had taken with them for their "spread."

XMAS PACKAGE IS RETURNED FROM OVERSEAS

Returns to Original Point After Intended Recipient Gets Home

ANAHEIM, July 10.—On November 21, 1918, Mrs. C. Martin of the Garden Grove road mailed a Christmas package at the Anaheim post office, addressed to her son, Alfred Bittner, Company C, 363rd Regiment, 91st Division, A. E. F., and Postmaster Alborn and his able corps of assistants dispatched it forthwith on that same date for France.

In due time the package arrived in France. But did Alfred Bittner ever receive it?

Not on your life. Of course he was duly notified that it had been sent from Anaheim and he made diligent inquiry for it from time to time but could get no trace of it.

The package was given up for lost and in the natural course of events Alfred Bittner sailed back to the land of the free and the home of the brave, received his honorable discharge from the army and arrived at his home in Anaheim two months ago.

On Tuesday, July 8, 1919, there came to Mrs. Martin at her home on Garden Grove road a package that gave the appearance of hard service overseas, which proved to be the Christmas parcel that she had mailed to her son nearly ten months before, and it was accompanied by a letter from the government stating that after diligent search it had been impossible to locate the party to whom the package had been addressed.

PRESENTS RULES OF MILL CREEK ROUTE

Many a motorist bound into Bear valley has happened to arrive at the controls at the wrong time, and has been forced to wait until the time of the next opening to traffic. The wearisome delay might have been avoided had the autoist known the exact time set for each opening of the controls. Study of the rules given below will obviate delays, and facilitate things for all concerned.

First. The control in Mill Creek canyon opens to public traffic going into the mountains at 5, 8, 11 and 2 a. m. and p. m., and the control at the Santa Ana river opens to traffic coming out of the mountains at 6:30, 9:30, 12:30 and 3:30 a. m. and p. m.

Second. Cars must enter the control in the order of their arrival at the point of control.

Third. The speed limit is fixed at 10 miles per hour, and one hour and five minutes must be used in passing through the control. The driver of any vehicle passing through the control in less time than one hour and five minutes is liable to arrest and fine.

Fourth. It is not required that cars shall proceed through the control in the order of their entrance into the control; therefore, allow the faster moving vehicle to pass. The state law says "It shall be the duty of the driver * * * to be overtaken and passed to give way to the right in favor of the overtaking vehicle, on suitable signal, etc., etc."

Fifth. If a car has not passed through the control one and one-half hours after entering, it must be stopped at once in a position where the traffic can safely pass, and must stay in that position one and one-half hours (or until the control is opened in the direction in which it is traveling).

Sixth. Cars going into the mountains are not permitted to leave the Santa Ana river end of the control until one and one-half hours after entering the Mill Creek end.

MAY USE LORRIES IN DENVER CAR STRIKE

DENVER, July 10.—The street car tie-up in Denver entered its third day today with a number of indications pointing toward a settlement.

Mayor Bailey threatened to install municipal motor lorries to reinforce hundreds of jitneys, and thus break the alleged collusion between the tramway company and the strikers to force fares back to 6 or 7 cents. A citizens' "adjustment committee" was called to meet this afternoon to consider the situation. Mandamus proceedings to compel operation of cars are under consideration.

The company tentatively rejected a proposal to hold a referendum on the question of 6-cent fares. The direct cause of the strike was a reduction in wages, forced by restoration of 5-cent fares by the new city administration in keeping an election pledge.

Seamen's Institute Grows and Branches may be Put Up at Ports in Southland

Seamen's Institute of New York

Commission Member Visits Laguna Man Who Writes About Work Done

Recently, a commission from the Seamen's Institute of New York was on this coast making an investigation into the advisability of putting up institutional buildings at San Diego and Los Angeles Harbor. A member of the commission stopped at Laguna Beach for a visit with an old friend, Frank Hanson, editor of Laguna Life. Hanson expects to see the day when a Seamen's Institute building will be constructed at Newport Harbor, a building to fit whatever importance the harbor becomes as a port.

Hanson, who is an old New York newspaperman, has written for the Register the following description of the New York institute: "With an immense coast line, an enormous commerce and the best of harbors, what more natural than that this country, shaking off its pre-war lethargy in the matter of operating its own ships, once more takes its former proud place as a maritime power of the first magnitude?"

"We now have the ships; we have the money and we are recruiting the men. In America's most prominent and largest port, New York, the very place where they naturally have had the best opportunity to study the needs of the sailor, it has been found that a very large percentage of this class are, when on shore, out of their element, and of keeping with their surroundings, and peculiarly apt to become the prey of designing land sharks."

Simply Laborer Afloat

"Of course, reformers and dreamers notwithstanding, it is a fallacy to suppose that the poor, as such, are essentially noble. And the poor sailor is simply a laborer afloat. But the fact remains that just because so much of his time is spent afloat; that is, away from distractions and attractions, he is an especially fit subject for the city-wise thief's attention."

"On the principle that no good was ever more enduringly performed than when it was produced by slow degrees, years ago a very small society was formed in New York City for the explicit purpose of guarding the sailor on shore. The members of this organization were certain that a sailor, when at sea, was perfectly able to take care of himself, but that many of them upon coming on shore were 'entirely at sea.'"

The organization, beginning in a very small way, grew up with the country, and now, when America at last is again prepared to become a maritime power, the Seamen's Church Institute of New York is ready to deal with the question, suddenly of so much importance and scope, of guarding the seamen landing in New York.

"That this institute is not simply something of a mushroom growth is attested to from the fact that such men as Pierpont Morgan and Vincent Astor are on the list of directors."

Fine Building

"The accompanying illustration of the Seamen's Institute of New York, at 25 South street, may ocularly impress the reader with the importance that must have been attached to this question of housing and entertaining seamen on shore to have been deemed that the expenditure of the necessarily immense sum the erection and maintenance of this edifice must entail."

"To name only a few of the features—in the building can be found a soda fountain; a large store room for seamen's baggage, requiring an elaborate checking system; a post office, where letters in all languages are kept on file pending the arrival of the addressee; a billiard room; a skating rink; a picture theater; a department where legal advice can be obtained and over which a luminary versed in maritime law presides; a navigation school, etc.

"But of late the society decided to still further enlarge its activities and to branch out, with New York as its pivot, to every port of any consequence in the country. Thus it came about that a couple of officials of the organization came west, not for the purpose of themselves growing up with the country, but to plant in every port of the Pacific an institute the size of which shall be in direct ratio to the importance of the harbor where it intends to function."

Of course, San Pedro was visited, also San Diego, and presently, having in mind that $500,000 harbor bond issue, in Newport, one may soon behold one of these buildings that arise wherever ships are habitually expected."

UNIVERSITY TO GIVE HORTICULTURE COURSE

Short courses in horticulture to be given at the University of California Farm, Davis, from December 8 to 20, will fully explain the new system of pruning advocated by the University whereby the average yield of the trees pruned is said to be about four times as great as that of trees of the same age pruned in the old way.

Questions as to the possibility of changing bearing apricot, peach and plum trees from the old plan of pruning to the new system are dealt with in the course. In general, it may be said that this is very easily done, according to the College of Agriculture, which invites interested growers to inspect apricot trees growing at the University Farm and to see what has been accomplished with these trees five years after the pruning system was changed.

BOOZE IS NOT A GOOD CURE

(From the Ames, Iowa, Intelligencer.) When a man comes to you all doubled up with pain and declares he will die in your presence unless you procure him a drink of whiskey, send him to a doctor or else give him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is a mistaken notion among a whole lot of people that booze is the best remedy for colic and stomach ache.—Advertisement.

WESTMINSTER NEWS

WESTMINSTER, July 10.—Instead of the usual preaching service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening those who attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Long Beach gave their reports. Eleven members took some of the things they had heard at the convention and could easily have taken up another evening. About twenty-five from this place attended some of the meetings, five or six staying for the whole time. The total registration was 5165, Los Angeles county alone sending 3291. The largest total registration before this was 3401 at Riverside two years ago. One speaker called it the greatest of any state C. E. convention, and held at an ideal place.

On account of recently adopted Mexican land laws, he could not buy land as he had planned.

Mrs. H. K. Hansen has as her guests Saturday her sister and daughter, Mrs. W. E. Hart, and Miss Ahla Hart of Huntington Park. The latter had been attending the Christian Endeavor convention at Long Beach.

John McBride is quite ill with cancer of the face at the county hospital. Only twenty-seven votes were cast here at the good roads bond election last week, seventeen for and ten against the bonds.

FINDS HIS DAUGHTER AFTER 20 YEAR HUNT

OMAHA, Neb., July 10.—E. G. McNeal of Des Moines has found his daughter for whom he has been searching for nearly twenty years, and tonight the father and daughter left Omaha for the McNeal home in Des Moines. While the discovery and reconciliation was made last January it was not made public until recently.

McNeal and his wife separated in 1896, while living in Seneca, Kan. Two months later a little girl was born. Three years afterwards Mrs. McNeal died. On her death bed, she wrote McNeal a letter telling him a family by the name of Filkins had adopted the child.

In January of this year McNeal came to Omaha to start a Belgian clothing campaign. In the Paxton Hotel cafe he was waited upon by a woman whose face seemed familiar. He asked the manager of the hotel about her, secured her address and called to see her. Her name was Mrs. Maubeta Warner.

Maubeta was the name of the little daughter whom McNeal had never seen. Mrs. Warner resembled the dead Mrs. McNeal to such an extent that McNeal was sure she was his daughter.

But McNeal lacked proof. This he found a few days ago in an Omaha newspaper, published in 1896, in which the story was told of the adoption of Maubeta McNeal by the Filkins family. McNeal has just completed tracing the little girl into the present Mrs. Warner.

MARTIN PASTOR OF HOLLYWOOD M. E. CHURCH

Graduate of Santa Ana High School Known As "The Fighting Parson"

Rev. Willis Martin, one of the best known Methodist pastors in America, is this week taking up his duties as pastor of the Methodist church at Hollywood.

This announcement is interesting to many old residents of the city, for he is a member of a family that lived here during the nineties. He graduated from Santa Ana high school in 1895, and afterward from the University of California. His sister, Miss Dora Martin, graduated here, and a few years later was a teacher in the high school here. A brother, Lieut. Leon Martin, was with the 362nd Infantry, in which regiment Captain Maurice Enderle and Lieut. Elmer Worth of Santa Ana, both graduates of Santa Ana high school, were officers. Lieut. Martin was killed while in command of a machine gun company in the Argonne Forest.

The following concerning Rev. Martin appeared in the Los Angeles Express:

"Bearing the appellation of 'The Fighting Parson,' a title won on the Mexican border and in special service overseas, the Rev. Willis Martin, formerly pastor of the First Methodist church at Boise, Idaho, this week is taking up his pastorate of the Hollywood M. E. church.

The call summoning Mr. Martin here from the mountain state came at a time when his widespread activities had made him one of the most prominent theological workers in the northwest; and members of his congregation in the Los Angeles suburb are looking forward eagerly toward a resumption of Mr. Martin's varied social service and charity drives in his new field.

The pastor, even before the war, was noted as a lecturer on literary topics, and his ability to speak convincingly and with force soon put him to the front when he campaigned for all five Liberty loans, the War Savings Stamp campaign, food conservation, and other civilian war services. He became so popular among his audiences that it was with difficulty that he defeated his own nomination for United States Senator.

Mr. Martin in recent months returned from France, where he was one of 25 representatives selected by John R. Mott of the Y. M. C. A. to visit the scenes of war for special observation. He had been nominated as state chaplain of the American legion when it was learned that he was to leave for California.

"Mr. Martin was pastor of the Boise church for nearly seven years, going there after a similarly lengthy period as pastor of an Alameda (Calif.) church. Prior to that time he had a pastorate at Chico, Calif.

He was chairman of the civilian relief department of the Boise chapter of the Red Cross; member of the Masonic lodge in Boise, the Boise lodge of Elks, the Rotary Club and other civic and social organizations."

King Booze is dead, but the Jewel City Cafe at Seal Beach is still serving that wonderful Sunset dinner for $1.50; and, oh, boy! What dance music!

ANDERSON GUILTY, SEEKS PROBATION

Oscar P. Anderson of Los Angeles, alias John A. Weston, who was arrested last night by Long Beach police, was found guilty of passing a bad check for $10 on the Rossmore Hotel by a jury in department 1 of the Superior court. He did not put on any defense, and through his attorney, S. M. Davis, who had been appointed by the court, entered a plea for probation. Hearing on the application and time for pronouncing sentence was set for tomorrow morning at 9:30. Jurymen who heard the evidence were A. A. Lee, F. J. Adams, C. L. Niles, H. M. Palmer, J. M. Miller, B. Y. Neal, N. E. Wray, M. Hungerford, E. M. Shepherd, L. A. Talbot, Harry Mosbaugh, and Fred State.

ONE PLEADS GUILTY, PARTNER NOT GUILTY

On the night of June 2, it is charged, W. D. Elton and J. B. Hansen beat Frank Leiby of Long Beach over the head with a beer bottle and club, and robbed him of $75 in cash and an Elgin watch. The incident occurred at Serra after Leiby had given the young men a ride. They were later arrested in San Diego and brought here.

JOHN MILLER ASKS PROBATION, ROBBERY

John Miller, former watchman for the mines in Trabuco canyon, was found guilty of second degree burglary by a jury in the Superior court yesterday afternoon and through his attorney, M. B. Wellington, filed application for probation, which will be heard next Wednesday.

Miller was accused of taking three guns from a mountain cabin owned by Lee Shaw near the Modjeska resort, and was tracked and arrested by Game Warden W. E. Adkinson and Under Sheriff J. H. Iman. On the stand yesterday he said he went to the cabin for a drink of water, found the door open, and saw the guns. He had always had a mania for guns, he said, and took the weapons.

The jury which tried the case consisted of J. W. Cadd, E. L. Lang, Jack Luitwiler, M. B. Van Fleet, J. P. Peralta, Wm. W. Krick, R. M. Jackson, R. J. Webster, W. H. Keiser, J. M. Miller, G. L. Niles, and A. A. Lee.

Tomorrow is the opening day for Leipzig's big July Clearance Sale.

OIL TAX BATTLES ARE DUE NEXT WEEK

Next week will see the monotony of the Board of Equalization mused up by two big contests, according to present indications. The Birch Oil Company, which has contested its assessment every year regularly, will probably appear before the board next Monday, it was stated today. The Standard is expected to launch its fight next Thursday. The Standard will likely fight its oil assessment, but will focus its heavier guns on the proceedings whereby its Murphy lease properties, formerly in the Lowell joint school district, were divided amongst the Fullerton, Orangehorpe, Buena Park and La Habra school district, under which its school taxes were increased approximately $160,000 a year.

GIRL ASKS GUARDIAN SO SHE CAN MARRY

Mary Urbana de Santiago, aged 16, wants to marry Richard Mason of Anaheim, but both her father and mother are dead, and there is no one legally authorized to give consent for her to wed. In order that the girl may be married with proper consent, a petition has been filed asking that Norberto Blanco be appointed the girl's guardian. When the guardian is appointed, she will immediately consent to the match, and the ceremony can be legally performed.

M'NEIL CONTRACTOR COURT HOUSE WORK

Chris McNeil of Santa Ana was today awarded contract for improvements and alterations on the second floor of the courthouse, with a bid of $10,555. J. Simon Fluor bid $10,695.40 for the job. Contractor McNeil announced he would start the work next Monday. The contract calls for tearing down present partitions on the east side of the second story, and building new walls, etc., so as to enlarge department 2 of the Superior court. To do this, some of the area now occupied by the district attorney's office will have to be utilized. The district attorney's office will be moved to those now occupied by Superintendent of Schools R. P. Mitchell, and Mitchell will move to the McCormac building.

GUZMAN IS RELEASED

Several days ago Manuel Guzman was arrested, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Della Schrober, aged 17, a Los Angeles girl. The complaint was sworn to by her father, who charged they had come to Santa Ana recently and remained overnight. The complaint was dismissed and the youth released at his preliminary examination yesterday afternoon, the girl's story failing to produce any evidence which would warrant holding him.

'Tis a Sad Story But Men Say Girls Stole Their Thunder

IT'S a sad condition, mates! The appeal of two lonesome girls in last night's Register for the company of four or five other young ladies in the establishment of a "Bachelor Girls' Home" as a means of rapping Old Man High Coat of Living brings two young men forward today with declarations that the girls have stolen their thunder. The men asserted that they had taken steps to form a "bachelor's club" with a view to instituting a club house where fellows could gather and enjoy the luxuries of a real home at less expense than "punging up" weekly to the boarding house keeper.

Now here are opposite sexes attempting the same goal, and the sad part of the story is in that such a condition should obtain. The girls proposing the girls' club would cherish a home. They are bright, handsome girls, making a good wage and fully self-supporting.

The two young men are likewise handsome. They are men with good positions, good habits, and home life is what they crave.

Surely there's a field for Cupid to get in his work! Why don't those men and girls "set their caps" for each other and bring about that happy condition of "two minds with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one?"

"Yes, the girls have stolen our thunder," said one of the bachelor boys this morning. "We are just as hard hit as they are in the cost of living. My friend and I have been discussing the organization of a 'Bachelor Men's Hall,' where we might have some of the comfort of the homes we enjoyed when we were putting our feet under mother's table regularly."

"It seems to me that a party of a dozen young men who are boarding out could be brought together in such an organization, with the maintenance of a comfortable home under the supervision of a competent woman, possible at much less than it is costing each today for his board and room."

Young men of good character and habits who would like to co-operate in such an undertaking are requested to address Box 50, care of Register.

Hiram J. Norton, a resident of Tustin for the past twenty-four years, died last evening at his home in Tustin. Besides the widow he leaves one son, Claude L. Norton, a stepson, E. B. Collier, manager of the Villa Park Lemon Association, three grandchildren and a brother and sister in Kansas.

Hiram J. Norton was born near Independence, Ia., February 26, 1856. He moved with his parents to Republic county, Kan., when a young man. He was married to Miss Clara Turner in 1876. Five children were born to the union, four of whom, and the mother, passed away many years ago.

In 1888 he was married to Cynthia M. Collier, at Smith Center, Kan. One child was born of this union, she dying in her infancy. He came to California in 1895 and settled at Tustin, and died on the place in which he is located at that time.

HOT SPELLS HIT LIMA BEAN PROSPECTS HARD

The present hot spell hits lima bean prospects, which were poor enough, another blow. There is no question but that a good many hundreds of acres planted to beans will not be cut. Many ranchers planted in the hope that the entire summer would be cool with much foggy weather. It has not been that kind of a summer so far, and a lot of the bean land not reached by irrigation water has dried out so that it will be impossible for beans planted on it to mature.

KILL SQUIRRELS BY THOUSANDS IN COUNTY

Deputy Wardwell Gradually Extending Operations to the North End

The fight that is being made to eradicate the ground squirrel in Orange county is being gradually extended to the north end of the county.

It was begun several weeks ago at the southern boundary. The big ranches in the southern half of the county are fairly well cleaned of the pest, but the spreading of poison is still being kept up where there is need. "Ranchers to the northeast and northwest are getting into the game, too," said G. W. Wardwell of Huntington Beach, deputy horticultural commissioner in charge of squirrel extermination. "They all seem to be waiting for me to get to them before starting the fight. There is no reason for that. They all know that they have to clean their lands of squirrels, and they might as well get the poison, which is furnished at the courthouse at cost, and go to it."

"Squirrels have been killed by thousands. We are using poisoned barley."

A large Riverside delegation is expected down for the week end and undoubtedly the accommodations of the beach will be taxed to provide for all who will want to remain for over Sunday.

MEXICO'S WEST COAST CONDITIONS IMPROVE

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Generally improved conditions and considerable development work along the west coast of Mexico is the message brought by Col. Epes Randolph of the Southern Pacific Railroad of Mexico, who arrived in Los Angeles yesterday.

Colonel Randolph says: "There are no political troubles along the west coast and conditions are generally normal. The Southern Pacific of Mexico is building its road from Guadalajara to Tepic with but ninety-nine miles yet to cover. Trains are operating as far south as Acaponeta."

"Farming, mining and stock raising conditions show a general improvement. The wheat and corn crops are good."

Demand for Books on War Falls off at Santa Ana Library

THE war is over, and while it is not forgotten, interest in it has dropped away down. The proof that interest is not what it used to be is found at the Santa Ana Public Library, where war books are a drug on the shelves.

"We used to circulate forty, fifty and sixty war books a day," said Miss Jeannette McFadden, librarian. "Some times two-thirds of our war books would be out. People used to read voluminously about Europe and its countries, and everything in relation to the war, fiction and otherwise, had a steady demand."

"But now—why, we circulate three, four and once in a while five or six war books a day. 'The most popular of the war books now is 'And They Said We Wouldn't Fight.' If the demand for that book keeps up, I'll order another copy of it. We have ordered Brand Whitlock's two-volume production on Belgium and the war, which will be one of the most valuable of our war collection."

FIRE LOSS HERE ONLY $3,223 PAST YEAR

Some interesting figures on Santa Ana's remarkably low fire loss and the cost of the volunteer fire department during the past year are given in the annual report of the volunteer department, compiled by Secretary Earl Glenn.

During the past twelve months the department was called out only thirty-one times, and one of these was a false alarm, so there were thirty fires. The total property loss from these calls was $3,223. Included in this amount is the sum of $1,850, which was the loss sustained in a fire on King street to which the department was not called.

The fire loss the past year was only which the department had a chance to work, was only $1,173 for the twelve-month period.

The first loss the past year was only 68 per cent of the previous year's loss and 62 per cent of the 1916-1917 loss. The cost of the volunteer department for the past year was $880. This does not include the cost of the permanent force of five men at the fire station.

"We are proud of Santa Ana's fireless record the past year," said Fire Chief Luxembourg today, "and we are just as anxious as we can be to keep the loss from fires down to a minimum. Therefore, we will continue our regular inspection of fire hazards, and we ask the co-operation of every man, woman and child in the city to the end that this remarkable record may be maintained."

BATS KILL MOSQUITO, RID CITY OF MALARIA

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 10.—Malaria can be eliminated. The mosquito alone is responsible. The surest method of ridding the earth of mosquitoes is propagating the bat.

These are the words of Dr. Charles A. R. Campbell, mosquito exterminator and protector of the bat. He is the originator of the only municipal bat room in the world, at San Antonio, Tex., which will accommodate 250,000 bats, and already has about 35,000 guests.

Through the efforts of Dr. Campbell the City of San Antonio passed, June 8, 1914, an ordinance prohibiting the killing of bats, and on March 10, 1917, Texas passed the first law in the world which protects the bat.

Since the erection of the municipal bat roost built by Dr. Campbell at Mitchell Lake, malaria has practically disappeared from the territory.

OUT OF PRISON, FACES ANOTHER TERM FOR FORGERY

Erwin Weaver Brought From San Quentin For Trial on Local Charge

Erwin H. Weaver five months ago finished a two-year prison term in Ohio, then was taken to San Quentin to finish out a previous term as a parole violator, and now faces another San Quentin sentence for alleged forgery and embezzlement in Orange county three years ago. He was brought from San Quentin to Santa Ana yesterday by Sheriff Jackson, taken before Justice Cox, and his preliminary examination set for July 23 at 2 p. m. He is now in jail awaiting the hearing.

The complaint against Weaver, charging forgery in endorsement of a $1247 check on the German American Bank of Anaheim, was signed on June 8, 1916, by Chas. L. Davis, local automobile dealer. Weaver is the youth who, shortly before that time, gained temporary notoriety by his alleged illegal operations with automobiles belonging to Davis, Rev. J. A. Stevenson, who had given Weaver a home, and E. J. Marks of Fullerton.

Weaver was on parole from San Quentin and first came to Villa Park, and later to Santa Ana. Several local men, including Davis, Rev. Stevenson, and Judge Thomas, interested themselves in him and gave him every chance to make good. Weaver "rewarded" their friendship, it was charged, by selling the Stevenson auto and pocketing the money, selling Davis' new car to E. J. Marks of Fullerton, taking in Marks' old car and over a thousand dollars cash besides, and then disappearing in Marks' car. After these operations, the youth was arrested in Columbus, Ohio, on a felony charge, and sentenced to two years in prison. After completing that sentence he finished his unexpired term in San Quentin and is now here for trial on the local felony charge.

BRITISH WON THE WAR DECLARATION OF HAIG

LONDON, July 10.—"Don't forget it was the British empire that won this war," Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig declared in a speech at Newcastle.

"We talk a great deal about our allies," Haig said. "It was necessary and right that we should do so to buck them up all we could while the fighting was going on, but don't forget it was the British empire that won this war."

"I don't wish to particularize, but you know our Russian friends threw us down and the Italians didn't do a very great deal then. Our French friends made the best of it, but then they really had a very hard job at the beginning. For the last two years England bore the brunt of the struggle."

Former Police Chief Is Sued For Whiskey Taken From Prisoner

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—A prohibition mystery now envelopes the Los Angeles police department. It started when George Phillips was arrested at San Pedro for having 25 quarts of whiskey in a place of public resort.

When he was arraigned there were but 25 quarts in evidence.

A few days later the ante-room of Judge Chambers court was broken into and only 8 quarts were left behind. The court ordered them stored at the University police station.

Two days later someone counted bottles. They numbered 6.

These were produced in evidence at Phillips' trial. He was acquitted. Now he's suing former Chief Butler for $300 for the loss of the whiskey.

RECORDER SAYS RECORDING OF DISCHARGES ADVISABLE

Only About 100 Have So Far Left Theirs to Be Put In County Books

Miss Justine Whitney, county recorder, believes that every returned soldier and sailor should have his discharge recorded at the county recorder's office.

Recording of discharges means more work for Miss Whitney and her office, but that does not deter the recorder from urging the advisability of having discharges recorded.

"The last legislature provided that the discharges be recorded free of charge," said she. "So far only about 100 discharges have been left at my office. These have been copied into the county records, word for word, and have been returned to their owners."

"I feel that every returned soldier and sailor should have his discharge recorded, for in every case a record may prove of real consequence either to him or to some of his relatives. The discharge bears his serial number, and that ought to be kept of record in this county."

"Recording of a discharge is optional with the soldier or sailor, but I am strongly of the opinion that it is advisable."

In years to come the record may prove valuable to a man or to his widow. If the original is lost or destroyed, the record will be available for reference.

Summer Tourist Crop In Southland Double That of Last Season

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—California's summer tourist crop will be double that of last year, railroad men predicted today.

Not only is the East sending 100 per cent greater crowds of visitors to the West this year, but the interior of California is yielding in greater numbers to the lure of the seashore.

As a result, hotels at beach and near-beach cities are becoming crowded and the bathing suit market is saved disaster due to scarcity of suits only by the constantly decreasing amount of material required.

Bakersfield, Tulare and Fresno are the heaviest contributors thus far to the Southern California beach crowds, but the Imperial valley is finishing with a rush which has required an average of one extra coach on each arriving train during the last two weeks.

Arizona is doing its share. Beginning a week ago it has been necessary to add from one to three extra coaches to every train from Phoenix to this city. New Mexico and Texas also are producing unusual numbers of visitors to California.

YOUNG MEN WANTED FOR TANK SERVICE

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—The war department has just issued a call for young men who are anxious to become expert radio operators to join the Tank Corps, a development of the recent war and an organization which became very popular with those in it during the fighting. A wireless school has been established at Camp Meade, Md., the tank training center, with a complete radio equipment and qualified instructors. Colonel Wetherill has been placed in charge of recruiting in this city for this branch of the service. The period of enlistment for men who have had previous service in the army is from one to three years, but there is no reserve clause at the present time. Those who enter on their first enlistment will have to serve three years.

Experts of University Will Explain Methods For Making Egg Tests

During the six weeks' poultry short course beginning September 29 at the University of California Farm, Davis, various methods for testing for egg production will be shown. It is announced by Dean Thomas Forsyth Hunt of the College of Agriculture.

One of these tests, known as the color test, and based on the theory that the bright yellow color in the shanks of yellow legged fowls fades out in proportion to the number of eggs the hen lays, is said to be of great value in culling out the slacker hens in July and August.

Careful investigations conducted by the Poultry Division of the University of California College of Agriculture are declared to show that in all yellow legged fowls, such as Leghorns, Plymouth Rocks, Wyandottes and Reds, the yellow color in the shanks, beak, ear lobes and skin slowly fades out as the number of eggs increases during each laying season. While this method is not as accurate or as expensive as trapnesting, flocks of layers can be culled quite accurately by the use of this color test in connection with other physical indications, according to poultry experts.

Mrs. Jack Elliott giving Gov. Carey girls' Request

Wyoming Governor Asked to Use Girl of State For Poster Model

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 10.—When the question of the illustration for a poster to advertise "Frontier Days," Wyoming's famous roundup, came before the authorities, some of the Wyoming girls declared that a girl of that state should be used as a model for the design.

They wanted to impress Governor Carey in a way that he would not be likely to forget and also make known their wants throughout the state, so they sent the governor a petition. This petition was carried by Mrs. Jack Elliott, an expert horsewoman, who delivered it by riding up the steps of the capitol on her pony and handing

BOND OF RUSSELLITES IS ORDERED RELEASED

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—All the bonds of the twenty-six members of the International Bible Students' Association, so-called "Russellites," were ordered released by the Federal court yesterday when, in accordance with instructions from Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, the pending prosecutions against E. D. Sexton and twenty-five others were dismissed.

It is to the governor who came to the front entrance to get it.

Mrs. Elliott said she would have ridden into his office if necessary to deliver the petition.

So far as is known, the Wyoming girls will have their way about the poster picture.

SIGNALS FIGHT OVER $24,137 IN ESTATE OF MRS. CZARSKA

Petition For Distribution Filed Will Bring Contest to a Head

With the filing of a petition in the Superior court here yesterday for distribution of the estate of Mrs. Dina F. Czarke, a final fight for portions of an estate now consisting of $24,137.27 was signalled.

It is a fight that involves the mystery of the lives of two old-time saloon-keepers of Santa Ana, that harks back to long-ago records in German churches, and in that fight the alien property custodian of the United States government stands by ready to seize any portion of the estate that the courts decide shall go to a citizen of Germany.

When Santa Ana was still a village with board sidewalks, and not many of them, no pavements and plenty of saloons, a German couple, H. A. Czarke and his wife, came here from Seattle and became proprietors of a saloon on the east side of Sycamore street between Third and Fourth streets. They had money when they came, and while the town remained wet they made money. It was with difficulty and only by the persuasion of fines and a jail sentence for one of them that they made up their minds to quit blind-pig operations. This was several years after Santa Ana went dry.

The couple, getting well along in years, stuck to the tumble-down buildings. In the rear were the remains of an early-day winery. The city was growing up about them, but they were not disturbed excepting when some enthusiastic person came along and tried to get them to sell their property.

Joy in Promising

Czarske died. That was about 1914. Mrs. Czarske lived on in the old saloon building. She began to wonder what would come of her property when she was gone, and it was her avowed purpose to give it away before she died. It was a fancy with her, a kind of mania, to get an acquaintance and confidentially tell him that she was going to remember his boy in her will. It was always a boy that she selected for her promise. Then she'd seem to change her mind and say she would give this boy the money before she died to make sure that he and not any of her husband's or her relatives got it. Sometimes she thought she would give her property to some institution. At one time she talked of giving it to the county, the Sycamore street property to be used as a site for a hall of records.

EXPECT BATTLE JOHNSON GRASS OVER CZARSKA FIGHT BEGUN ESTATE IN EARNEST

Petition For Distribution Will Bring Contest Before Court

Many were promised. Dreaming and scheming as to what she would do with her property, the old woman lived on, but when it came to signing her name to a deed of gift or anything that faintly resembled a will, she shied off. She'd sign nothing. By that time she might be considering some other benevolence, or perhaps it was another baby boy who was then in her mind as the one to be given her property.

On January 20, 1916, she died. She died without having given away a foot of her real estate or a dollar of her money and without having made a will.

Investigations developed that Czar-ske had left a will in which he willed all of his property to Mrs. Czar-ske. Since he had died first, that left the entire Czar-ske property in the estate of Mrs. Czar-ske.

Janssen's Claim

Over at Anaheim lived Gerhard M. E. Janssen, who claimed to be a nephew of Mrs. Czar-ske. He had been here several years, and while at first he had been welcomed with open arms by Czar-ske and his wife, bitterness arose and it was often declared by Mrs. Czar-ske in her conversations as to what she was going to do with her property that she did not want Janssen to have any of it. Public Administrator Winbiger, with Scarborough and Forges as attorneys got letters on Czar-ske's estate and that estate has since been distributed to Mrs. Czar-ske's estate.

In 1916 Janssen sought letters of administration upon the estate of Mrs. Czar-ske. Then, too, came Fred D. Czar-ske of Redondo Beach and Mrs. May Erwood of Edendale, nephew and niece of Czar-ske, and they made a fight for control of the estate.

In the fight in court, Czar-ske of Redondo won a decision. He was represented by Attorneys J. C. Burke, C. D. Swanner and Williams and Rutan of Santa Ana, and Porter, Morgan and Parrot of Los Angeles. The Anaheim man was represented by Attorney S. M. Davis. The Czar-ske interests declared that Mrs. Czar-ske's sister in Germany had never been married.

In addition to the claimants here, came the German consul at San Francisco with a claim for Wilhelm Zarske, who lived in Germany, supposed to be a brother of H. A. Czar-ske. No demand was made for the right of administration, but attorneys in San Francisco, representing the consul, asked notice on all papers filed in the case that they might make a fight for a share for the German Zarske.

Then America got into war with Germany, and the estate, even when it was ready for distribution, was tied up. Attorneys for the administrator got notice from the alien property custodian of the United States that this government laid claim to anything that was to pass to a German citizen.

Yesterday, attorneys for Fred Czar-ske filed a petition for final distribution of the estate of Mrs. Czar-ske. This petition states that there is now $24,137.27 cash in the estate, the real estate having been sold.

Under the California law, half of the estate should go to the heirs of Czar-ske and half to the heirs of Mrs. Czar-ske. Fred Czar-ske and his sister, Mrs. Erwood, are asking that they be distributed the Czar-ske half of the estate.

They do not recognize that there is an uncle Wilhelm in Germany, and if Uncle Sam gets an order to distribute any of the property to the alien property custodian he will have to prove that there is an uncle Wilhelm who spells his name Zarske instead of Czar-ske.

Don't Recognize Claim

Neither do they recognize that Gerhard M. E. Janssen of Anaheim has any claim to the half of the estate that will go to the heirs of Mrs. Czar-ske, if any make proof of heirship. In fact, the petition states that there are no known heirs of Mrs. Czar-ske. Janssen will undoubtedly come into court again to renew his claims to a share in the estate, though when the fight for letters of administration was up he was unable to make his claim strong enough for him to defeat Fred Czar-ske's claim to administration.

The filing of the petition will bring the fight for shares in the estate to a head. There may be other claimants show up. As the estate now stands, Fred Czar-ske and Mrs. Erwood, both natives of the United States, will get half of the estate, unless the German uncle makes good his claim, and if he does the court will distribute that uncle's share to the alien property custodian. If the German uncle's relationship to H. A. Czar-ske is established, Fred Czar-ske and Mrs. Erwood will get only a quarter of the estate. What will come of the other half of the estate cannot be conjectured. There may be heirs of Mrs. Czar-ske in Germany who will get into the contest, but if they do it will be under the auspices of the alien property custodian. Janssen may be able to establish his relationship to Mrs. Czar-ske in such a manner that he will get the Mrs. Czar-ske half of the estate.

Action Is Taken to Clear the City and County Roads of the Pest

A fight for the control of Johnson grass was started today by Horticultural Commissioner E. L. Morris and Deputy G. W. Wardwell. The first step is aimed at the control of the pest on city and county roads. This morning Wardwell conferred with Santa Ana officials in regard to digging out Johnson grass that is growing on a number of city streets. It is particularly bad along Fairview avenue.

Property owners are urged to clear their lots of Johnson grass as quickly as possible. Vigilance is necessary to conquer the pest upon any given area. The roots should be dug out and destroyed, and then three weeks later a second digging should be made to get stray roots that have sent shoots to the surface. A third digging may be necessary.

"If the roots can't be dug up," said Morris, "at least the property owner should cut and burn the stalks so that the seed will not be scattered."

County road bosses are to have charge of controlling Johnson grass on county roads.

The structures include two big capitol extension buildings, a great packing plant, a government warehouse, a ten-story department store and mail order house, an eighteen-story bank, business and office building and the filtration and pumping plant. Future Limas

Do you know that the majority of Lima bean growers outside the pool received far more for their beans than can possibly be realized by members of the pool? War conditions, which necessitated regulation of the food supply of the United States, combined with the importation of large quantities of foreign beans, was undoubtedly responsible for the unstable market during the past year.

The limited supply of lima beans in view indicates a strong market at high figures.

With peace now signed and a heavy international demand for all food products can you afford to pool your beans?

MEEHAN WINNER OF MISERABLE EXHIBITION

Jack Thompson Is Branded Shady For Fiasco In San Francisco

OAKLAND, July 10.—Thirteen thousand today contend that Willie Meehan should be given a chance at the heavyweight chess championship.

In a miserable bout before the largest crowd drawn by a fight in this city, Meehan got the decision over Jack Thompson. Thompson, a huge negro, is today branded shady for last night's fight.

Meehan looked white and untrained and certainly gave no appearance last night of being in the title holder's class.

Allie Mack and Jimmy Marshall traveled four rounds to a draw in the semi-final, Harry Pelsinger was given the decision over Jack Davis, Jack Reeves took a decision over Mexican Kid Carter.

Adams Plans to Stage Next Fight For Title In Arena at Pocatello

Frank H. Adams

Idaho Sport Has Plenty of Money and Rich Friends To Help Him

POCATELLO, Idaho, July 10.—Frank H. Adams of this city, is determined that the next heavyweight championship battle shall take place in Pocatello. He did his best to land the Dempsey-Willard fight and offered a huge guarantee to stage the match in the northwestern city, but Richard chose Toledo instead.

Adams was at the Toledo fight and afterwards declared that he is going after the next big bout even harder than he fought for the one just concluded. He has plenty of money of his own and a host of very wealthy friends who will lend assistance.

BILL JAMES TO PLAY OAKLAND, Cal., July 10.—Bill James will make his appearance with the Oakland club this afternoon against the Salt Lake Bees. James, who gathered here for himself in 1916 with the Boston Braves, was signed a few weeks ago by Del Howard.

PASADENA SCHOOL ROW AWAITS LEGAL RULING

PASADENA, July 10.—As in the eyes of the Board of Education, Pasadena is without a superintendent of schools, a member of the board was constantly present at the school district headquarters yesterday to transact business and this policy will be pursued until the courts or the highest legal authority of the state, has passed on the status of Dr. John Franklin West.

West also was present in the board rooms, occupying his office, but no clashes resulted, each side apparently resting until a definite legal ruling is obtained. Clayton R. Taylor represented the board.

Mr. Mann has also engaged Monsieur Verme, formerly chief to the late King, Luitpold, of Bulgaria, to officiate in his kitchen. A big jazz orchestra for dancing will be another attraction.

IF THIN AND NERVOUS, TRY PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

When one stops to consider the host of thin people who are searching continually for some method by which they may increase their flesh to normal proportions by the filling out of ugly hollows, the rounding off of protruding angles with the attendant bloom of health and attractiveness, it is no wonder that many and varied suggestions along this line appear from time to time in public print.

While excessive thinness might be attributed to various and subtle causes in different individuals it is a well-known fact that the lack of sufficient phosphorus in the human system is very largely responsible for this condition. Experiments on humans and animals by many scientists have demonstrated beyond question of doubt that a body deficient in phosphorus becomes nervous, sickly and thin. A noted author and professor in his book, "Chemistry and Food Nutrition," published in 1915, says: "The amount of phosphorus required for the normal nutrition of man is seriously underestimated in many of our standard text books."

It seems to be well established that this deficiency in phosphorus may now be met by the use of an organic phosphate known throughout English speaking countries as Bitro-Phosphate. Through the assimilation of this phosphate by the nerve tissue the phosphoric content when absorbed in an amount normally required by nature soon produces a welcome change in our body and mind. Nerve tension disappears, vigor and strength replace weakness and lack of energy, and the whole body soon loses its ugly hollows and abrupt angles, becoming enveloped in a glow of perfect health and beauty and the will and strength to be up and doing.

CAUTION.—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

The government is taking up the good roads motion picture idea which has figured so prominently in various state bond issue campaigns as an item of propaganda for highway development. The war department has 1,000,000 feet of negatives representing every phase of America's part in the war, little of which has been released, and this will be used to show road making in France under fire, difficulties of transportation, etc. Then the films will branch into road construction in this country. REFORESTATION COMMITTEE TO MEET OCT. 9

Important Session Will Be Held In the City of Anaheim

ANAHEIM, July 10.—On Thursday, October 9, 1919, Anaheim is to be the host to a most important gathering, and the Board of Trade, under the guidance of Secretary Whitaker, will strive to make the evening a delightful and memorable occasion.

On that date the Tri-County Reforestation Committee, of which Francis C. Cottle of Riverside is chairman, will hold its annual convention in this city, and it is desired by Chairman Cottle that everyone in Orange, Riverside or San Bernardino counties, the three counties which constitute the committee, who is interested in the control and conservation of the flood waters of the Santa Ana river shall attend this meeting and enter into the discussions of the questions that will come before the body.

Secretary Whitaker will get busy in securing a meeting place for the sessions of the body and in preparing the social part of the program. In this work he will be assisted by members of the board and the aim will be to make the affair a most pleasant one.

The Tri-County Reforestation Committee was organized in 1907 and has been active during its entire existence and its work is now beginning to be felt. In the last legislature it succeeded in getting laws passed and an appropriation made that will enable the committee to accomplish more than ever, and it is on account of the accomplishments of these ends that importance is added to the meeting to be held in this city.

The purposes of the committee are: Co-operation with federal and state governments for regulation of flow of the Santa Ana river and its tributaries; comprehensive plan of conservation reclamation and flood control for the entire watershed by reforestation, afforestation, check dams, sinking water on debris cones and bank protection.

G. W. Sherwood of Fullerton is recording secretary of the committee; C. J. Kettering, corresponding secretary, and W. B. Clancy, treasurer. Orange county members of the committee are: H. C. Head, chairman; W. G. Mason, A. Pierotti, J. J. Dwyer, J. W. Newell, A. S. Bradford, Samuel Armour, F. Rohrs, George Dierker, M. Nisson, John Dunstan and G. W. Sherwood.

LAGUNA BEACH

C. O. Dale and family of Placentia were fourth of July visitors at the home of Mr. Dale's sister, Mrs. R. W. Jackson, of the Cliffs. Other guests of Mrs. Jackson were F. B. Dale and family of Orange and Miss Hubbard.

Dr. Frances Marshall spent Sunday at her cottage on the Cliffs, together with her son, Harley, and Harvey Petrie of Missouri, the latter an old friend, to whom the Marshalls are showing Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Dunham of Pasadena, first-time visitors to Laguna Beach, stopped at the Keystone Apartments on the Cliffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Larimer of Hollywood, and daughters, Aline and Ruth, and Miss Probst, are spending the week in Mrs. E. A. Larny's apartment, on the Cliffs.

Mrs. Edna A. Larny probably takes the lead for the largest number of guests over the Fourth. Five automobiles of friends drove down Friday morning, hoping to surprise her, but a little bird had flown ahead with the secret. Six families were included in the party and after a short visit they all headed for Aliso canyon—Mrs. Larny acting as pilot—for a good old-fashioned picnic. Having found a large large enough to hold all the delicious edibles packed away in the several autos, the 28 people gathered around and partook in true picnic fashion.

STEPSON STOLE MONEY FROM PARENTS

Mexican Lad Makes Two Raids on Finances of Family

ANAHEIM, July 10.—Marco Baiza, a Mexican, 27 years of age, residing at 114 Thalia street, West Anaheim, is languishing in the Anaheim city jail.

Baiza claims to be a son of Caterino Baiza, a rancher of Placentia, but the police understand that he is the stepson and not the real son of the Placentia man.

Some two weeks ago the Placentia rancher's house was entered and $100 was stolen from a cabinet therein. Suspicion pointed to the stepson, but no proof was forthcoming and nothing was done about the matter.

The Placentia man and his wife were absent from home last Saturday and when they returned in the evening they found that they had been robbed. This time of $240.

On inquiry it was learned that neighbors had seen the stepson enter the house through a window and also depart the same way.

Complaint was made to the Anaheim police and inside of an hour Officer Andrade had placed the stepson in the cooler, and then began working for a confession.

Later the stepson confessed to the officer and also went with him to a friend of the stepson, in West Anaheim and procured $160 of the money, the stepson having left it with the friend for safe keeping. Officer Andrade has been unable to ascertain from the prisoner what has become of the balance of the plunder.

The prisoner says he has been in California ten years, coming to the state from Mexico, and has been in the county five years.

My friends advised me to quit after July 1st, but I couldn't see it. It would not be right to close the most beautiful Cafe in Southern California. So I got busy, and engaged Mr. E. G. Wood, America's foremost Revue producer, and told him to go ahead and give me the best Show he ever put on, regardless of expense.

Then I engaged Monsieur Alfred Verriere, formerly in charge of the kitchen of the late King Luitpold, of Belgium, and recently chef at the Los Angeles Athletic Club. His instructions are: Nothing is too good for my patrons.

To make the combination complete I hired a Jazz Orchestra, and, believe me, you cannot make your feet behave when it plays.

Come to Laguna Beach the Vacation Paradise of Orange County

Laguna Beach opens her arms and welcomes all of Orange county to spend the summer among her canyons, towering trees and her rock-ribbed coast. Laguna is Orange county's place of rest and scenic wonders. Artists have raved over it, nature lovers have bestowed unlimited praise upon her and raised their hearts in thankfulness for the inspiration she has given them. To those who see with their souls Laguna and Arch Beaches provide boundless satisfaction. Nature calls mightily here and answers the craving of every being who appreciates her wonders and delights in her beauty.

It has grown upon nature lovers from near and far that Laguna has a quaint beauty entirely her own. The shore, for one thing, is wholly unlike other beach shores. It is not long and straight, but rocky and full of turns—"surprises everywhere"—is a slogan artists have given Laguna's shore line. At low tide the gulches, crags and nooks are exposed to full glory. The brief space of gentle sloping beach very quickly reaches the embrace of the ocean through rocky cliffs. San Juan point may be seen in the distance.

Twenty-Five Hundred Visitors

Nearly Twenty-five hundred people visited the Laguna Beach Art Gallery during May and June. Were you one of them? Is your name on the Gallery Register?

If not, plan to be one of the twenty-five hundred who will visit the Gallery before August First. It is next door to the Laguna Beach Hotel. Opposite the Post Office. It is open daily. You will be welcome.

NEWS NOTES FROM TALBERT

TALBERT, July 10.—Rev. J. Alvah Andrews, pastor for two years of the Talbert Methodist church, and family, are expected down from Los Angeles this week to remain for several days with friends here. Rev. Andrews will preach next Sunday morning for Rev. Woodson at Greenville, but will be unable to fill the local pulpit Sunday evening as he goes that afternoon to Long Beach. The family is on a two-weeks' vacation, a part of which has been spent at Ventura.

A letter from Miss Isabelle Chandler who, with her mother and sister, are working in the fruit at Hemet, tells of extreme hot weather there. Mrs. Chandler is so nearly overcome by the heat, which is far more oppressive than has ever been experienced there before, that she is contemplating returning home.

Mrs. Sara Warner was affected with a touch of cholera morbis Saturday. An epidemic of the disease has been going the rounds hereabout.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walker entertained the former's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker and their children, Earl, Carl and Martha, at their home last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Walker and daughters, Elinore and Bernice, and Mr. and Mrs. Oldham and daughter Genevieve, of Tustin, motored to Laguna Beach Sunday. A part of the day was spent bathing and the men of the party returned with a generous coat of suntan.

Kenneth Sargent, who has been on overseas duty at Brest, France, for many months with the 319th Engineers, arrived in New York June 27, a card to that effect having been received here by his brother-in-law, Will Jones. Sargent was to go directly to Camp Mills for discharge.

Mrs. M. J. Page received a letter this week from her son, George Page, who is in France. He has no idea as yet when his turn for release from army service will come but has hopes of getting home by Thanksgiving, he wrote.

Earl Planchon returned to his home in Santa Ana Sunday after a week spent at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walker.

Harvey Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper of Huntington Beach returned Wednesday from Venice Hills, which is located northeast of Visalia, where they went to look at land. All were favorably impressed.

Harvey Walker purchased twenty acres and Harry Harper and Frank Harper contemplate purchasing a partnership forty acres. This is the same tract of land in which Arnold Walker recently purchased a forty-acre piece.

Will Howardson, wife and little son of Long Beach, were Sunday guests at the S. E. Talbert home. Howardson lived here as a boy, having been raised by Mr. and Mrs. Talbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weddle and family and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Weddle and family drove to Pasadena on a sight-seeing trip last Sunday.

Evening services were discontinued at the local M. E. Church, South, last Sunday to give an opportunity for attending services at the Huntington Beach tabernacle to those who wished to go. Among those from here who went were the pastor, Rev. J. J. Woodson and wife, daughters, Mabel Lee and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Tammany Vincent, Miss Smith and John Pope.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and baby of this place, with Mr. and Mrs. Gail Bergey of Huntington Beach, drove to Anaheim, Landing Sunday evening where they met a party of Long Beach friends and spent the evening. A winter bake was one of the features of the evening and the men of the party enjoyed the fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and little daughter were Fourth of July visitors in Long Beach.

Among Talbert people who spent the Fourth at Huntington Beach were Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Talbert, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Weddle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weddle and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cox and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Bradley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Giesler and family, Miss Mabel Lee Woodson. The latter had the misfortune to encounter a stingaree while in the surf and as a result had a badly injured foot for several days.

Mrs. Moody of Huntington Beach was in Talbert Monday calling on friends. Her daughter, Miss Mildred Moody, who was primary teacher of the Fountain Valley school the past year and who will also teach here next term, is at present in San Diego attending summer school. Miss Von Gruenigen, who has accepted the principalship of the school for the coming term, is also attending the same school.

J. H. Cox finished pumping Monday for Nagai, the Japanese on the ranch adjoining his, who has irrigated his ten-acre pepper field the past week. Cox is now cutting his alfalfa hay.

Miss Della Giesler spent the weekend in Long Beach as the guest of her friend, Miss Effie Toogood, and returned home Sunday evening with other members of the family who were in Long Beach for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wardlow and children and Clare and Vance Wardlow and Miss Gladys Wardlow of this place; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wardlow, daughter, Miss Nellie, and son, LeRoy, of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Will Cheney and baby of Tustin, and Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Cheney of Tulare spent the Fourth of July picnicking together up the Santa Ana canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and little daughter, the former's mother, Mrs. E. A. Jones, and sister, Mrs. Lou Lawton, daughter and son of Lynnwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Walker and family of this place. Friends joining the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cook and children, Miss Mildred Lavangu of Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weeks of Los Angeles and George Minderup of Dominguez. The latter has but lately returned from two years of army service in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Talbert of Los Angeles, formerly of Talbert, have again returned to this section, having moved the past week to Huntington Beach.

Mrs. Thurman has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Talbert, after a visit of several weeks with relatives in Los Angeles county.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Walker and daughters, Elinore and Bernice, spent the Fourth at Long Beach with a large party of relatives and friends, some of whom are camping near the municipal pier. The day passed most delightfully with visiting, surf bathing, interspersed with a sumptuous dinner served at the tents at the noon hour.

The best feature of the day for the entire party was the presence of Mrs. C. C. Hecock, who has been so greatly missed from the midst of the family circle during her long confinement at the hospital. She is now able to walk unaided for a little way. The family party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hecock, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hecock and children of Dominguez, Mrs. Hecock's sister, Mrs. Anna Peters of New York, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morton, daughter and son of Lynnwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Walker and family of this place. Friends joining the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cook and children, Miss Mildred Lavangu of Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weeks of Los Angeles and George Minderup of Dominguez. The latter has but lately returned from two years of army service in Europe.

IMPERIAL, July 10.—The Imperial Valley grape season is now in full swing, daily carload shipments having begun last Saturday. Up to that date nine cars of the Thompson Seedless variety had left the valley from El Centro. Carload shipments are now being made from here and Brawley. The total output of grapes from the valley for this season is estimated at 175 cars, mostly of the Malaga variety.

REDLANDS, July 10.—The Mill Creek road is proving the popular despite the fact that for a short distance it is under control because of narrow turns. At each control Sunday there were 100 cars and at one afternoon control the record was more than 200 cars coming down from Bear Valley. More than 1000 cars were counted going over the road Friday and the record Saturday was above 600 cars. About 800 went up
 Saturday and about 1000 came down.

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—An aero-plane valued at $5000 and to be launched within the next day or two for the first time, was totally destroyed last night in a fire on Washington boulevard, near Venice. The aircraft was being built by Frank Wilson, brother of Al Wilson, noted pilot.

 The engines were installed and the machine was being varnished ready for its final flight. It was in a carpenters shop which Wilson leased while constructing the machine. How the fire started has not been determined.

VENTURA, July 10.—The famous old Ojai Inn, a picturesque landmark of the Ojai, has been razed to be replaced by a new $125,000 structure.
 The building is to be erected by members of the Ojai Improvement Company, work beginning at once.

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Many of the larger department stores of the city will be closed all day every Saturday during July and August, commencing with next Saturday, when many thousands of clerks will be enjoying a week-end vacation extending from Friday night until Monday morning.

ONTARIO, July 10.—Numerous recruits to the Christian Science faith are expected in Ontario and Upland in the near future following the announcement of ten leading physicians of a sharp advance in price schedule.
 Under the new order, office or telephone advice will cost $1.50, house visits by day will cost $3 and by night $5 with an additional charge of $3 per hour for every hour detained at a house over one hour.

MT. LOWE, July 10.—Scarcity of pasture because of dry weather has added greatly to the popularity of Alpine Tavern in recent weeks by driving large numbers of deer down to the little ravine back of the tavern, where Resort Manager Viceroy feeds them alfalfa hay each afternoon.

BRAWLEY, July 10.—Federal plant specialists are studying a disease which is causing great damage to cantaloupes in Imperial Valley and threatens to cut down the shipments fully 5 per cent. This is the root knot, caused by nematodes.

ODD NEWS BITS

NEW YORK.—Two highwaymen forgot their own guns when C. Cavuoti raised up his hands at their command. One had a gun in it. They fled.

ST. PAUL, Minn.—"How much larger is St. Paul than New York?" inquired William Hawthorne, London, after he had been lost two hours between trains on his way to Tacoma, Wash. He "saw the town" but missed his train.

COLUSA, Cal.—Silo owners who prefer the kick to the taste are not worrying over prohibition. "Silene," the juice of ensilaged corn, is said to have a Dempsey wallop, compared to whisky. But it tastes bad.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Prohibition's first victim here is William Nohmann, ex-bartender, prostrated on the first warm day following prohibition.

CHICAGO.—Although peace was signed Saturday, "tanks" were still on the job here.

DES MOINES.—"Come to my fire, I'll bring it to you," said a railroad agent to the fire department. Yardmaster then towed the burning cars near the first station. The fire was put out with little damage.

OAKLAND, Cal.—"The gone but not forgotten bartenders' farewell all night ball" to be held tonight is widely advertised on posters with deep black borders. There will be refreshments until 12.

SPOKANE, Wash.—"He tickled my feet until I became hysterical," says Pansy Knezevitch in her divorce complaint against Milan Knezevitch.

OKLAHOMA CITY.—The dry season finds Stormy Jim unprepared. Cops raided the negro's place and found sixty gallons of beer—and confiscated it.

GRAND RAPIDS, Women helpless? Not much. Mrs. Andrew Henderson beat up a burglar, took away the money he had stolen and had her husband call the police.

CLEVELAND.—"Thirty degrees cooler inside," read the sign in front of a movie. Outside it was 71.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Mrs. Emma Lacy poured carbolic acid into a bottle of whiskey to create a "kick." It did—into a hospital.

LOS ANGELES.—The men who cooked the county grand jury's banquet are trembling in fear. It has been learned two secret indictments were returned after dinner.

Costume Parade, Orpheum Acts, Novelty Contortionist, Summer Girls on Beach Carnival Program

Next Saturday, July 12, is the second Red Letter Day of the 1919 program of the Balboa Carnival Association. Officially, it is known as Riverside County Day and we expect a lot of Riverside folks here, as well as many Orange county people.

Saturday morning there will be an automobile boost parade through the principal towns of Orange county for the pageant-play, dance festival which will be given Saturday evening. This is really going to be something worth seeing and there will be a large number of people here, so come early.

"The Carnival of the Flowers"

A unique and gorgeous event will take place Saturday, "The Carnival of the Flowers," especially written during the past few months, and which will be participated in not only by many Balboa Summer Girls, but also by several leading stars from Los Angeles. The production is under the direction of Madame A. LaRue of Los Angeles.

Special features from the Orpheum circuit will be provided, and music will be furnished by a stringed orchestra.

The "Spirit of Fun and Frivolity" will be welcomed with a gay and colorful, eye-filling and amusing pageant and carnival. There will be a real and happy plot to the pageant, which will make use of the streets, the beaches, and the bay for its presentation. Unusual and beautiful lighting and decorating effects will be developed for the event.

Dances in pantomime will be given by the Lily, Rose Poppy, Sunflower and other flowers. Dancing in the streets will follow. Later a dance in costume will be given in the pavilion, with valuable prizes for the best costume dancers. Costumes may be brought from home or secured from a goodly assortment now at Balboa.

Besides the carnival attraction on the Bay side, there will be a big program of athletic events on the ocean front near the pier. This program will include running matches for fat men, boys' three-legged race, races for lady bathers, races for men bathers, etc., with cash prizes.

SAILING

Outside the Bay, and all the year round, the famous Gulf of Santa Catalina is literally a "summer sea" and on these waters the continuous moderate sailing breezes of the summer months provide a yachting ground than which none could be safer or more attractive. Sailing craft of all kinds and sizes may be seen here on any fair day and races are frequently held on both the inner bay and the outside course.

Day trips and cruising parties are, of course, frequent. Charts and sailing courses to many interesting points may be seen at the club house. The art of boat sailing is easily learned and is, of all sports, the most healthful and fascinating; but, sad to admit, the average Californian is not yet awake to these two facts. A short time ago the Newport Harbor Yacht Club obtained plans and specifications with full building instructions for a fifteen-foot cat-rigged sail boat; a safe, comfortable and speedy little craft, designed by one of the best naval architects in the East. These plans have been reproduced in "blue print" sheets and will be given away (while the supply lasts), without charge to any of our friends who wish to build boats and sail them on Newport Bay.
